'EXPERIENCE'

Dedicated to
DR. AMMANN

*There were two young men who did laugh
They laughed at the people's unrest*

*They stuck their sticks in the air
And turned them around with the best*

*Then with time they began to feel strange
For no longer it swung in their way*

*So to capture again that old thrill
They started to take the life-pill.*

Goodbye for now

George ..... and ..... Gilbert
